

God's Holy Plan

Mary Lieber

Bob Whitson

Narrator: Now let's go back to nearly 700 years before that night in Bethlehem; to the promise.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace.

With those words, centuries before the actual event, the prophet Isaiah foretold the birth of Jesus. Isaiah also said: Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign: behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

Bold statements: The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, a child . . . born of a virgin. If Isaiah was right, if this prophecy was true, the world would be changed forever. But how could it be? Then, as today, some decided that it could not. "Who is this Prince of Peace?", they asked. But there were many who believed that Isaiah had reported the message accurately. That it had indeed come from God, and it was truth. That . . . from God's great unselfish love emerged a Holy Plan. A Savior He would give the world, a baby, a child, a Man.
